Jan 1st – March 31st 2010

"I have just received the copy of the entry in the "Liber Parochialis" you have sent me. Thank you so much for taking the trouble to look up Smout in the index and for replying to my request so promptly."

"Thank you for replying to my request so quickly and am pleased that you think that the pub is "mine"…….. I would be delighted to give you a copy of the photograph"

"Thank you so much. You have been the most helpful person I have come across so far!"

"Many thanks for your letter and accompanying enclosures…..thank you again for all your efforts on my behalf "

"Thank you very much for this information,……..I really do appreciate the further investigating you did on this for me."

"Thanks for all your hard work and support. It is very much appreciated"
GL Head teacher of Holly Hall Secondary School. Mr L is trying to get the name of an ex-pupil who was killed in Africa in 1942, added to a War Memorial at St Augustine's churchyard.

"Thank you so much for your very informative response"
ER-C who is researching parental attitudes to children during the late 19th and early 20th century

"Thank you very much for your reply and infos.....thank you for all your support. It will be my pleasure to let you and the Borough Council know about the progress of my research"
AM - Professor of Biomechanics and Physiology at the University of Milan. Professor M is interested in the feats of Joseph Darby as part of his research into the scientific aspects of the 'long jump'.