Recreational Courses

Climbing, Trampolining, Gymnastics

Our recreational courses for juniors run in conjunction with Dudley Council school term dates and are supervised and coached by fully qualified instructors.

Certain courses work to specific levels and once the level is achieved, the appropriate badge can be awarded. These are available to purchase at reception.

Due to the popularity and success of the recreational course programme, a waiting list may be in operation. Please complete the form enclosed and return it to reception. You will then be contacted via letter or telephone as soon as a place is available on the course.

Once you have enrolled on your first course, you are then given priority to re-enrol on the next term's course during re-enrolment week only.

Posters will be displayed around the centre to remind parents when re-enrolment week takes place. Failure to re-enrol in re-enrolment week may result in the loss of your place.
