

Arrangements for Dealing with Standards Allegations under the Localism Act 2011

1. Context

The Localism Act 2011 requires the Council to adopt “arrangements” to deal with allegations that a Member or co-opted Member has failed to comply with the local Members’ Code of Conduct. These arrangements set out how any such complaints or allegations will be investigated and dealt with.

The Council has appointed Independent Person(s). An Independent Persons’ views must be sought before a decision is taken on any allegation that the Monitoring Officer has decided shall be investigated. An Independent Persons’ views can be sought by the Council at any other stage, or by a Member against whom an allegation has been made.

2. The Code of Conduct

The Council has adopted a Members’ Code of Conduct, which is attached as Appendix 1. The document is also available on the website and from the Council on request.

3. Making a complaint

It is a requirement of the Localism Act 2011 that any complaint or allegation that a Member has failed to comply with the Council’s code of conduct must be in writing.

If you wish to make a complaint against a Member or co-opted Member, you will need to complete our complaint form, which is available on the website and on request from the Council. You should send the completed form to:-

The Monitoring Officer
Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council
The Council House, Priory Road, Dudley DY1 1HF
E-mail: Mohammed.farooq@dudley.gov.uk
Telephone: 01384 815305

The Monitoring Officer has statutory responsibility for maintaining the register of Members’ interests and is responsible for administering the system in respect of complaints about the conduct of Members.

The following points should be noted before you make a complaint:

- You will need to provide us with your name and a contact address or email address, so that the Monitoring Officer can acknowledge receipt of your complaint and keep you informed of its progress.
- The Council will not investigate anonymous complaints, unless there is a clear public interest in doing so.
- There is a presumption that a complainant will not be allowed to claim confidentiality unless exceptional circumstances exist. If you want to keep your name and address confidential, please indicate this in the space provided on the complaint form, in which case we will not disclose your name and address to the Member against whom you make the complaint, without your prior consent.

4. Will your complaint be investigated?

The Monitoring Officer will review every complaint received and take a decision as to whether it merits formal investigation. He may consult an Independent Person as appropriate. Where the Monitoring Officer has taken a decision, he will inform you of this and the reasons for it.

If the Monitoring Officer requires additional information before coming to a decision, he may ask you to provide such information. He may also request information from the Member against whom your complaint is directed.

The Monitoring Officer may seek to resolve the complaint informally, without the need for a formal investigation. Such informal resolution may involve the Member accepting that his/her conduct was unacceptable and offering an apology, or other remedial action. Where the Member or the Council makes a reasonable offer of local resolution, but you are not willing to accept that offer, the Monitoring Officer will take account of this in deciding whether the complaint merits formal investigation.

If your complaint identifies potential criminal conduct or breach of other regulations by any person, the Monitoring Officer has the power to inform the Police and/or any other regulatory agencies.

5. How is the investigation conducted?

The Council has adopted a procedure for the investigation of misconduct complaints, which is attached as Appendix 2.

If the Monitoring Officer decides that a complaint merits formal investigation, he/she will appoint an Investigating Officer, who may be another senior officer of the Council, an officer of another authority or an external investigator. The Investigating Officer will decide whether he/she needs to meet or speak with you to understand the nature of your complaint. It will also allow you to explain your understanding of events and suggest what documents the Investigating Officer needs to see, and whom the Investigating Officer needs to interview. However the conduct of the investigation is in the total discretion of the Investigating Officer.

The Investigating Officer will normally write to the Member against whom you have complained and provide him/her with a copy of your complaint. He/she will ask the Member to provide his/her explanation of events, and to identify what documents if any he/she needs to see, and whom he/she needs to interview.

In exceptional cases, where it is appropriate to keep your identity confidential, or where disclosure of details of the complaint to the Member might prejudice the investigation, the Monitoring Officer can delete your name and address from the papers given to the Member, or delay notifying the Member until the investigation has progressed sufficiently. The Monitoring Officer shall keep the issue of confidentiality under review throughout the complaints process.

At the end of his/her investigation, the Investigating Officer will produce a draft report and will send copies of that draft report, in confidence, to you and to the Member concerned. This will allow you and the Member an opportunity to identify any matter in the draft report that you disagree with, or which you consider requires more consideration.

Having received and taken into account any comments on the draft report, the Investigating Officer will send his/her final report to the Monitoring Officer.

6. What happens if the Investigating Officer concludes that there is no evidence of a failure to comply with the Code of Conduct?

The Monitoring Officer will review the Investigating Officer's report and consult an Independent Person as necessary. If he is satisfied that the Investigating Officer's report is sufficient, the Monitoring Officer will write to you and to the Member concerned, notifying you that he is satisfied that no further action is required, providing you both with a copy of the Investigating Officer's final report. If the Monitoring Officer is not satisfied that the investigation has been conducted properly or is insufficient to determine the complaint, he may ask the Investigating Officer to reconsider his/her report.

7. What happens if the Investigating Officer concludes that there is evidence of a failure to comply with the Code of Conduct?

The Monitoring Officer will review the Investigating Officer's report and either seek local resolution or refer the matter for a local hearing before the Standards Sub-Committee.

8. Local Resolution

The Monitoring Officer may consider that the matter can reasonably be resolved without the need for a hearing. In such a case, he/she will consult with an Independent Person and with you as complainant and seek to agree what you consider to be a fair resolution that also helps to ensure higher standards of conduct for the future. Such resolution may include the Member accepting that his/her conduct was unacceptable and offering an apology, and/or other remedial action. If the Member complies with the suggested resolution, the Monitoring Officer will take no further action.

9. Local Hearing

If the Monitoring Officer considers that local resolution is not appropriate, or the Member concerned is not prepared to undertake any proposed remedial action (such as giving an apology), then the Monitoring Officer will refer the Investigating Officer's report to the Standards Sub-Committee. The Sub-Committee will conduct a local hearing before deciding whether the Member has failed to comply with the Code of Conduct and, if so, whether to take any action.

The Council has agreed a procedure for local hearings, which is attached as Appendix 3.

The Monitoring Officer will conduct a "pre-hearing process", requiring the Member to give his/her response to the Investigating Officer's report, in order to identify what is likely to be agreed and what is likely to be in contention at the hearing. The Chair of the Sub-Committee may issue directions as to the manner in which the hearing will be conducted. At the hearing, the Investigating Officer will present his/her report, call such witnesses as he/she considers necessary and make representations to substantiate his/her conclusion that the Member has failed to comply with the Code of Conduct. For this purpose, the Investigating Officer may ask you as the complainant to attend and give evidence to the Sub-Committee. The Member will have an opportunity to give his/her evidence, to call witnesses and to make representations to the Sub-Committee as to why he/she considers that he/she did not fail to comply with the Code of Conduct.

The Sub-Committee, with the benefit of advice from an Independent Person, may conclude that the Member did not fail to comply with the Code of Conduct, and so dismiss the complaint. If the Sub-Committee concludes that the Member did fail to comply with the Code of Conduct, the Chair will inform the Member of this finding and the Sub-Committee will then consider what action, if any, should be taken as a result of the Member's failure to comply with the Code of Conduct.

In doing this, the Sub-Committee will give the Member an opportunity to make representations and will consult an Independent Person, but will then decide what action, if any, to take in respect of the matter.

10. What action can the Sub-Committee take where a Member has failed to comply with the Code of Conduct?

The Council has given delegated powers to the Standards Sub-Committee to determine the appropriate course of action in respect of any complaints heard.

The action taken by the Sub-Committee, following a finding of a Member breach of the Code of Conduct, must be proportionate taking account of the facts and circumstances of each individual case. The Sub-Committee has no power to suspend or disqualify the Member from office or to withdraw Members' allowances.

The Sub-Committee may consider the following (although this is not an exhaustive list):

- Reporting the findings to Council.
- Recommending to the Member's Group Leader that the Member in question be removed from the Cabinet, any or all Committees or Sub-Committees of the Council or Other Bodies subject to statutory and constitutional requirements.
- Formal letter from the Council or the Chair of the Audit and Standards Committee to the Member in question.
- Formal censure through a motion.
- Withdrawal of facilities (eg: ICT).
- Arrange training for the Member.

11. What happens at the end of the hearing?

At the end of the hearing, the Chair will announce the decision to all parties present along with any other actions that the Sub-Committee decides to take.

As soon as reasonably practicable, the Monitoring Officer will send a copy of the decision letter to you and to the Member concerned. The minutes of the Sub-Committee will be placed on the Council's website and submitted to the next convenient ordinary meeting of the Council for information.

12. Appeals

There is no right of appeal for you as complainant or for the Member against any of the decisions made by the Monitoring Officer or by the Sub-Committee in accordance with these arrangements.

If you feel that the Council has failed to deal with your complaint properly, you may make a complaint to the Local Government Ombudsman.

Appendix 1: Dudley MBC - Members' Code of Conduct

Appendix 2: Procedure for Investigations

Appendix 3: Procedure for Local Hearings

Members' Code of Conduct

1. Application of the Code

As a Member or Co-opted Member of Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council, I acknowledge that this Code of Conduct applies whenever I am acting in my capacity as a Member, including

- At formal meetings of the Council, the Cabinet, Committees, Sub-Committees and Working Groups.
- When acting as a representative of the Council.
- In taking any decisions as a Cabinet Member or Ward Councillor.
- In discharging functions as a Ward Councillor.
- At briefing meetings with Officers.
- At site visits.
- When corresponding with the Council other than in a private capacity.

2. General Principles

As a Member or Co-opted Member of Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council, I have a responsibility to represent the community and work constructively with our staff and partner organisations to secure better social, economic and environmental outcomes for all.

In accordance with the Localism Act provisions, when acting in this capacity, I am committed to behaving in a manner that is consistent with the following principles to achieve best value for our residents and maintain public confidence in this Council.

Selflessness: Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends.

Integrity: Holders of public office should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.

Objectivity: In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should make choices on merit.

Accountability: Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office.

Openness: Holders of public office should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.

Honesty: Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.

Leadership: Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

3. Standards of Conduct

As a Member of Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council my conduct will address the statutory principles of the code of conduct by:

- Championing the needs of residents – the whole community and in a special way my constituents, including those who did not vote for me - and putting their interests first.
- Dealing with representations or enquiries from residents, members of our communities and visitors fairly, appropriately and impartially.
- Not allowing other pressures, including the financial interests of myself or others connected to me, to deter me from pursuing constituents' casework, the interests of the borough or the good governance of the Council in a proper manner.
- Exercising independent judgement and not compromising my position by placing myself under obligations to outside individuals or organisations who might seek to influence the way I perform my duties as a Member or Co-opted Member of this Council.
- Listening to the interests of all parties, including relevant advice from statutory and other professional officers, taking all relevant information into consideration, remaining objective and making decisions on merit.
- Being accountable for my decisions and co-operating when scrutinised internally and externally, including by local residents.
- Contributing to making this Council's decision-making processes as open and transparent as possible to enable residents to understand the reasoning behind those decisions and to be informed when holding me and other Members to account but restricting access to information when the wider public interest or the law requires it.

- Behaving in accordance with all our legal obligations, alongside any requirements contained within this Council’s policies, protocols and procedures, including on the use of the Council’s resources.
- Valuing my colleagues and staff and engaging with them in an appropriate manner and one that underpins the mutual respect between us that is essential to good local government.
- Always treating people with respect, including the organisations and public I engage with and those I work alongside, and not bullying any person.
- Providing leadership through behaving in accordance with these principles when championing the interests of the community with other organisations as well as within this Council.
- Respecting the confidentiality of information received as a Member by:
 - not disclosing confidential information to third parties unless required by law to do so or where there is a clear and over-riding public interest in doing so; and
 - not obstructing third parties’ legal rights to access information.

4. Members’ Interests

The Localism Act 2011 provides for registration and disclosure of interests and in Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council this will be done as follows:

Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

Members must:

- Comply with the statutory requirement to register, disclose and withdraw from participating in respect of any matter in which they have a disclosable pecuniary interest.
- Ensure that the register of interests is kept up to date and notify the Monitoring Officer in writing within 28 days of becoming aware of any change(s) in respect of disclosable pecuniary interests.
- Make a verbal declaration of the existence and nature of any disclosable pecuniary interest at any meeting at which you are present at which an item of business which affects or relates to the subject matter of that interest is under consideration, at or before the consideration of the item of business or as soon as the interest becomes apparent.

“Meeting” means any meeting organised by or on behalf of the Council, including:

- Any meeting of the Council, the Cabinet or any Committee, Sub-Committee or Working Group.
- In taking a decision as an individual Ward Member or Cabinet Member.
- Any briefing with officers.
- Any site visit associated with any business of the Council.

Other Interests

In addition to the requirements above, if Members attend a meeting at which any item of business is to be considered and you are aware that you have a “non-disclosable pecuniary interest or a non-pecuniary interest” in that item, you must make a verbal declaration of the existence and nature of the interest at or before the consideration of the item or as soon as the interest becomes apparent.

You have a “non-disclosable pecuniary interest or a non-pecuniary interest” in an item of business where:-

- A decision in relation to that business might reasonably be regarded as affecting the well-being or financial standing of you or a member of your family or a person with whom you have a close association to a greater extent than it would affect the majority of the Council Tax Payers, ratepayers or inhabitants of the ward or electoral area for which you have been elected or otherwise of the Council’s administrative area; or
- It relates to or is likely to affect any of the interests set out in the form attached to this Code, but in respect of a member of your family (other than a relevant person referred to on the form) or a person with whom you have a close association; and that interest is not a disclosable pecuniary interest.

It is the responsibility of Members to disclose interests and to withdraw from participating in meetings as and when necessary in accordance with both the requirements of this Code and the Council’s Constitution.

Sensitive interests

“Sensitive interests” mean those that contain information, the details of which if disclosed publicly, could lead to a Member or a person connected with a Member, being subjected to violence or intimidation.

Where a Member considers that the details of a disclosable pecuniary interest contains sensitive information, and the Monitoring Officer agrees, the Monitoring Officer shall not include details of the interest on the public version of the register, but may include a statement that an interest exists but the details are withheld.

Dispensations

The Council may grant a dispensation, but only in limited circumstances, to enable a Member to participate and vote on a matter in which they have a disclosable pecuniary interest.

Members do not have disclosable pecuniary interests in any business of the Council where that business relates to functions of the Council in respect of-

- housing, where you are a tenant of the Council provided that those functions do not relate particularly to your tenancy or lease;
- school meals or school transport and travelling expenses, where you are a parent or guardian of a child in full-time education, or are a parent governor of the school, unless it relates particularly to the school which the child attends;
- statutory sick pay under Part XI of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, where you are in receipt of, or are entitled to the receipt of, such pay;
- an allowance, payment or indemnity given to Members;
- any ceremonial honour given to Members; and
- setting the Council Tax or a precept under the Local Government Finance Act 1992 as amended.

Gifts and Hospitality

Members must, within 28 days of receipt, notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of any gift, benefit or hospitality with a value in excess of £100 that has been accepted from any person or body other than the Council. The Monitoring Officer will include the notification in the public register.

Investigations Procedure

Standards Allegations under the Localism Act 2011

1. Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to ensure that investigations are carried out as quickly and thoroughly as possible in line with the principles of fairness, natural justice and other legal issues.

There are many factors that can affect the time it takes to complete an investigation. Most investigations should be carried out, and a report on the investigation completed, within six months of the original complaint being received by the Monitoring Officer. The timescale for holding a hearing to consider the outcome of an investigation should normally be no longer than three months from completion of the investigation. The Monitoring Officer will oversee the process to minimise delays wherever possible.

All decisions will be made under this procedure in accordance with the following principles:

- proportionality (i.e. the action must be proportionate to the desired outcome, including consideration as to cost);
- due consultation and taking of professional advice;
- a presumption in favour of openness;
- clarity of aims and desired outcomes;
- taking account and explaining the options considered and the reasons for the decision taken;
- due regard to the Members' Code of Conduct.

2. Procedure for Code of Conduct Investigations

1. A written complaint is received by the Monitoring Officer.
2. The Monitoring Officer acknowledges receipt and notifies the Member of the details of the complaint.
3. The Monitoring Officer decides whether or not further information is required. Both parties to the complaint will be notified if this is necessary.

4. The Monitoring Officer carries out an initial assessment of the complaint and consults with the Independent Person as necessary.
5. The possible outcomes of the Initial Assessment are:
 - No case to answer - The Monitoring Officer will notify the Member and the complainant of the outcome of the initial assessment.
 - Informal resolution – The Monitoring Officer may seek to resolve the complaint informally in consultation with an Independent Person as necessary. The Monitoring Officer will contact the complainant and the Member to discuss the proposal to resolve the complaint informally.

If both parties to the complaint accept informal resolution, the Monitoring Officer will notify them accordingly. If the Complainant refuses a reasonable offer of informal resolution, the Monitoring Officer will take this into account in deciding whether or not the complaint merits formal investigation. The Monitoring Officer may choose to dismiss the complaint.

If the Member agrees to informal resolution, and subsequently fails to comply with any agreed action to informally resolve the matter, the Monitoring Officer may refer the matter to the Standards Sub-Committee.

The Monitoring Officer will advise both parties of the outcome of the agreed informal resolution, thereby concluding the complaint.

- The Monitoring Officer decides that the complaint requires formal investigation.

The Monitoring Officer will consult an Independent Person as necessary and advise the complainant and the Member of this decision.

The Monitoring Officer will appoint an Investigating Officer – who may be another senior officer of the Council, a senior officer from another Authority, or an external investigator.

The Investigator will advise the Complainant and the Member of the scope of the investigation, including proposed timescales, the witnesses to be interviewed and the documents required. The Investigator has sole discretion as to how to conduct the investigation and conclude the investigation report.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the Investigation Officer will produce a draft report, to be forwarded to the complainant, the Member and the Monitoring Officer.

The Complainant and the Member will have an opportunity to comment on the draft report, and identify aspects of the report they disagree with. However the Investigator has sole discretion as to whether or not to amend or alter the report as a result of any comments made. The Investigating Officer will forward the final report to the Monitoring Officer with any amendments following his/her consideration of any comments received.

The Monitoring Officer will review the Investigating Officer's report and will decide whether or not the report is sufficient. If the report is deemed to be insufficient, the Monitoring Officer will ask the Investigating Officer to reconsider the report.

If the report is sufficient, the Monitoring Officer will send a final copy of the report to the complainant and the Member, and indicate the course of action that he will take in relation to the complaint.

The courses of action will be as follows:

- The report finds no breach of the Members' Code of Conduct – the Monitoring Officer will advise the complainant and the Member that the matter is concluded.
- The report finds a breach or potential breach of the Members' Code of Conduct – the Monitoring Officer will write to the parties confirming this and propose one of the two following options:
 - (i) Informal Resolution following consultation with an Independent Person. In this event the same procedure as set out above will apply for informal resolution.
 - (ii) Referral for a local hearing by the Standards Sub-Committee.

Procedure for Standards Sub-Committee Meetings

1. Interpretation

'Subject member' means the Member of the Council who is the subject of the allegation being considered by the Sub-Committee, unless stated otherwise. It also includes the Member's nominated representative.

'Investigator' means the Monitoring Officer or his nominated representative.

'Independent Person' means a person appointed to undertake this role by the Council pursuant to the provisions of the Localism Act 2011.

2. Representation

The subject Member may be represented or accompanied during the meeting by a person of their choice.

3. Advice

The Sub-Committee may take advice, in private if necessary, from officers at any time during the hearing or while they are considering the outcome. The substance of any advice given to the Sub-Committee should be shared with the subject Member and the investigator if they are present.

4. Independent Person

The Independent Person involved in the case shall be entitled to attend the meeting to give advice and views to the Sub-Committee at any stage of this procedure.

5. Setting the scene

After everyone has been formally introduced, the Chair should explain how the Sub-Committee is going to run the hearing.

6. Exclusion of the Public and Press

The Sub-Committee will consider whether the meeting should be considered in public or private session under the provisions of the Local Government Act 1972.

7. Preliminary Procedural Issues

The Sub-Committee should then resolve any issues or disagreements about how the hearing should continue, which have not been resolved during the pre-hearing process.

8. Making findings of fact

After dealing with any preliminary issues, the Sub-Committee should then move on to consider whether there are any significant disagreements about the facts contained in the investigator's report.

If there is no disagreement about the facts, the Sub-Committee can move onto the next stage of the hearing.

If there is a disagreement, the investigator, if present, should be invited to make any necessary representations to support the relevant findings of fact in the report. With the Sub-Committee's permission, the investigator may call any necessary supporting witnesses to give evidence. The Sub-Committee may give the subject Member an opportunity to challenge any evidence put forward by any witness called by the investigator.

The subject Member should then have the opportunity to make representations to support their version of the facts and, with the Sub-Committee's permission, to call any necessary witnesses to give evidence.

At any time, the Sub-Committee may question any of the people involved or any witnesses, and may allow the investigator to challenge any evidence put forward by witnesses called by the Member.

If the subject Member disagrees with any relevant fact in the investigator's report, without having given prior notice of the disagreement, they must give good reasons for not mentioning it before the hearing. If the investigator is not present, the Sub-Committee will consider whether it would be in the public interest to continue in their absence.

After considering the Member's explanation for not raising the issue at an earlier stage, the Sub-Committee may then:

- continue with the hearing, relying on the information in the investigator's report;
- allow the subject member to make representations about the issue, and invite the investigator to respond and call any witnesses, as necessary;
- postpone the hearing to arrange for appropriate witnesses to be present, or for the investigator to be present if they are not already.

The Sub-Committee will usually adjourn to consider the representations and evidence in private.

The Chair will announce the Sub-Committee's findings of fact.

9. Did the subject Member fail to follow the Code of Conduct?

The Sub-Committee then needs to consider whether, based on the facts it has found, the subject Member has failed to follow the Members' Code of Conduct.

The subject Member should be invited to give relevant reasons why the Sub-Committee should decide that he/she have not failed to follow the Code.

The Sub-Committee should then consider any verbal or written representations from the investigator.

The Sub-Committee may, at any time, question anyone involved on any point they raise on their representations.

The subject Member should be invited to make any final relevant points.

The Sub-Committee will then adjourn to consider the representations.

The Chair will announce the Sub-Committee's decision as to whether the subject Member has failed to follow the Code.

10. If the subject Member has not failed to follow the Code of Conduct

If the Sub-Committee decides that the subject Member has not failed to follow the Code, the Sub-Committee can move on to consider whether it should make any recommendations to the Council.

11. If the subject Member has failed to follow the Code of Conduct

If the Sub-Committee decides that the subject Member has failed to follow the Code, it will consider any verbal or written representations from the investigator and the subject Member as to:-

- Whether the Sub-Committee should take any action.
- What form that action should take.

The Sub-Committee may question all parties and take any advice, to make sure they have the information they need in order to make an informed decision.

The Sub-Committee will then deliberate in private to consider whether to take any action in respect of the subject Member and, if so, what action to take.

The Sub-Committee may also consider whether it should make any other recommendations to the Council.

The Chair will announce the Sub-Committee's decision.

12. The written decision

The Sub-Committee will announce its decision on the day. The Monitoring Officer will arrange for a decision letter to be sent to all parties as soon as possible after the meeting to confirm the decision.
