Further comments

* The draft appraisal has identified that there are residential parts of the Conservation Area that could be better preserved and enhanced if the local planning authority was to withdraw certain permitted development rights. Article 4 directions are one of the tools available to a local planning authority, their purpose is to restrict the changes owners can make to the outside of their property without first obtaining planning permission. An Article 4 direction does not prevent development but simply requires that planning permission is first obtained; there is no fee payable for a planning application which is required solely as a consequence of the Article 4 direction. An Article 4 direction has been successfully employed in the Love Lane and Mushroom Green Conservation Areas.

Once completed please place in the pre-paid envelope and post it back to us or place it in the collection box located in one of the venue’s listed overleaf. Thank you for your time.
